In consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein, the Claimant and CRC agree as follows:

1. The Claimant hereby authorizes CRC to act on the Claimant's behalf to collect, allocate and distribute royalties and other consideration arising from or in connection with the retransmission in Canada of distant signals within the meaning of the Copyright Act (Canada) as from time to time amended. The Claimant authorizes CRC to communicate with its representatives by email or other electronic means, as required, in matters relating to these activities.
2. This Authorization shall be effective as from the date hereof and shall continue until December 31 of this year and thereafter shall be automatically continued from year to year for additional consecutive periods of one (1) year, subject to the right of either CRC or the Claimant to terminate this Authorization as at the end of any such one (1) year period by written notice served upon the other not less than four (4) months before the expiry of such period.
3. The Claimant agrees to promptly notify CRC from time to time in the manner prescribed by CRC, of all works for which the Claimant is the exclusive administrator of the rights of retransmission in Canada.
4. The Claimant and CRC agree that:
 - (a) CRC's gross revenue from all sources shall, after deduction of its expenses of and incidental to the collection and distribution of its revenue and the carrying out and administration of its business and operations be distributed among the Claimant and any other parties who have granted similar authorizations to CRC;
 - (b) distributions shall be made promptly following the calculation of the Claimant's and such other parties' shares, it being the intention that insofar as it is possible distributions shall be made annually; and
 - (c) each distribution shall be effected having regard to the total amount of money available in the distribution period, such distribution period to be determined by the board of directors of CRC, and the total number of credits attained by the Claimant and such other parties, such credits to be calculated according to the distribution formula approved by the board of directors of CRC and in effect at the time of such distribution.
